Learning and Living Leadership Toastmasters District 62 Fall Conference

Meet Dwayne G. Smith - At the Fall Conference, you will have multiple opportunities to hear Dwayne G. Smith, 2002 World Champion of Public Speaking. On August 24, 2002 in San Antonio, Texas, Dwayne G. Smith became the 2002 World Champion of Public Speaking. Bolstered by his success in Toastmasters and determined to make speaking a full-time career, Smith launched the Speakers Coalition in 2003. Eager to impact as many people as possible, Smith has also produced videos, "Bringing Out the Winner in You" and "Now That's a Story". Learn more about Dwayne at www.dwaynegsmith.com

Gina Cook, DTM, Toastmasters Region VI International Director

This fall, District 62 will host our International Director. While visiting District 62, Gina will be making visits to corporations and community groups to market Toastmasters, as well as attending some media events. She will also be presenting 2 special corporate recognition awards. Gina lives in Kanata, Ontario, Canada, is a senior systems analyst in the Information Technology Branch of the Canada Revenue Agency. She is also president of Gina Cook & Associates, Inc., a technology consulting firm.

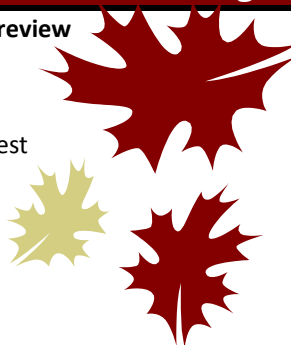

A dedicated Toastmaster for 20 years, Gina is a member of two clubs: Infomasters and Kanata Toastmasters. As a member of the Toastmasters International Board of Directors, Gina is a "working ambassador" for the organization. She works with her fellow Board members to develop, support and modify the policies and procedures that guide the organization in fulfilling its mission.
